

1. Conditions of participation of the EOTY 2026

Participation is reserved for members of an MG club affiliated to the MG Car Club, with a car which is an MG.

2. Procedure

This is a touristic rally on open roads, without competition or regularity test. It is in no way a sporting or speed event.

3. Highway Code

Participants undertake to comply with the requirements of the Highway Code and the local laws of the urban areas crossed. Any violations of the traffic code, as well as the fines relating thereto, are at the sole responsibility of the offenders. During any visit to a cave, the tasting is done under the full responsibility of the driver of the vehicle and in no case can the MGCF be responsible during a positive blood alcohol test.

4. Administrative control

Drivers certify to be in possession of and able to present the following documents:

- Valid driver's license. This also applies to the passenger, if he/she is required to drive,
- Registration Document corresponding to the vehicle entered,
- Green insurance card corresponding to the vehicle entered.

5. Safety checks

The vehicle must conform to the current rules of the French highway code. The organisers can refuse the departure of a vehicle which would present a character of insecurity, without it being possible to claim compensation. The rally plates cannot, under any circumstances, hide the license plates and must be firmly attached to the car.

6. Public health rules

During an exceptional health situation, impacting the progress of our events, the participant agrees to comply with national and local health rules and municipal decrees in force on the date of release. Any breaches of these rules and their consequences are the sole responsibility of the person who contravenes these sanitary measures.

7. Insurance

Each entrant, in the event of an accident, remains responsible vis-à-vis the other entrants and third parties, and renounces to engage the responsibility of the MG Club de France in any capacity whatsoever.

8. Commitment - Cancellation

A fully registered participant, who cannot start, for whatever reason, cannot be totally reimbursed. A sum remaining acquired by the MG Club de France to cover the costs already incurred at the time of their withdrawal, depending on the following conditions, which were communicated at the time of registration:

- 30 days before the start 80% refund
- 15 days before the start 50% refund
- 1 day before the start no refund will be made
- Departure during the event does not give any right to a partial refund
- Refunds will be given only by bank transfer (in which case bank details are to be given)

9. Application of the rules

The organization reserves the right to cancel a registration without having to justify the reason. By virtue of their commitment, each participant is deemed to agree with these rules and agrees to abide by the decisions of the organisers. Under no circumstances will the MG Club de France be held responsible in the event of an accident or offense during the event.
